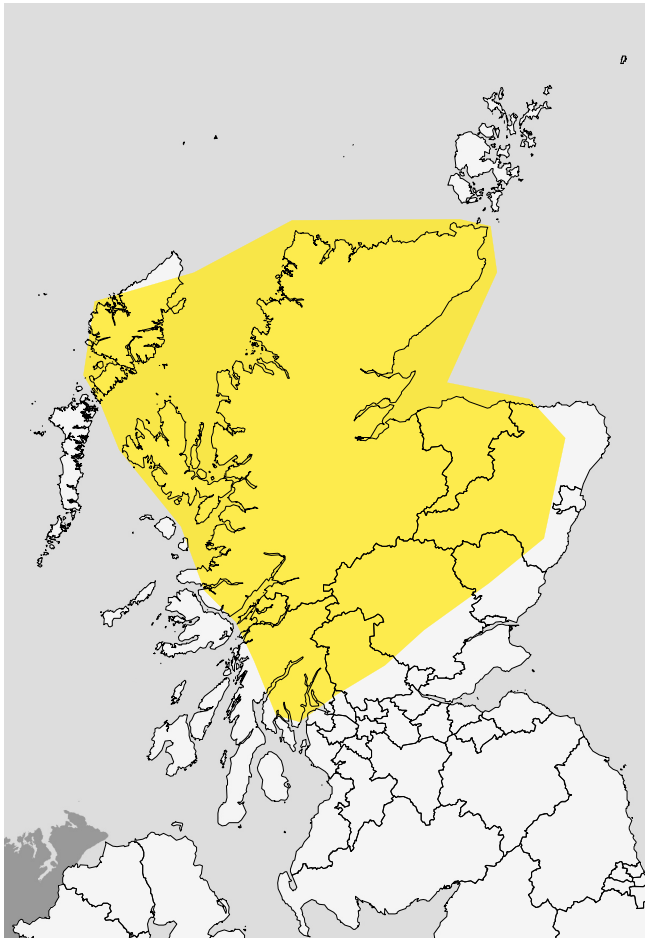
Yellow warning
Snow & Ice

Between
00:00 Fri 30 Dec 2022 and
21:00 Fri 30 Dec 2022



A spell of snow is expected on Friday.

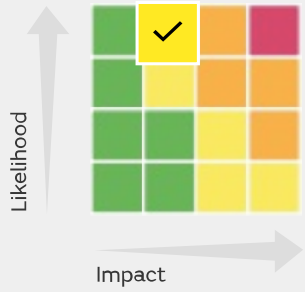
What to expect

- Some roads and railways affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services
- Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces
- Icy patches on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths

Further details

Outbreaks of rain will readily turn to snow as it encounters cold air over Scotland. Snowfall will be temporary at low levels but will be more persistent over high ground where some significant accumulations will occur. 5 to 10cm is expected to accumulate widely above 200m, with as much as 20 cm possible above 400m. Ice will be an additional hazard where snow compacts or refreezes.

To the southeast of Inverness to Fort William the snow will slowly turn to rain from the south during Friday morning.



✓ High likelihood of low impacts
